MOVE IS INAUGURATED
TO SEND SAN JOSE BAND
TO FRESNO SATURDAY

Council Considers Name Change Considered By Campus Daily

Authorization of a request for the sum of $25 to send the San Jose State college band to the State-Fresno football tilt in Fresno was one of the two important measures passed by the student council in their meeting yesterday.

The request for $35, to be taken from the emergency fund, must receive the official approval of T. W. MacQuarrie, president of the college, in order to become effective. This move to send the band to Fresno is an aftermath of the successful trip of football players, band, and rooters on the special "hilarity train" to Davis two weeks ago.

NAME CHANGE

The council, presided by Ronald Linn, student body president, passed a measure to the effect that a proposed change in the school name will be handled as an amendment to the school constitution.

The constitution of the associated students of San Jose State Teachers college, article V, section I, states that "an amendment to this constitution may be proposed to the Executive council by any member of the Board or by any committee from the associated students who shall present a petition for such an amendment signed by at least ten per cent of the members of the associated students."

Neil Thomas, controller of the college, declared at the meeting yesterday, "In 1925 the name 'Spartan' was voted in the constitution as the official name of the school, and an amendment is necessary to change it."

The Spartan Daily is sponsoring a contest which will open today and continue until Friday, November 9, 5:00 p. m. for a new name

Holliday Will Be Guest
Speaker At Cliff Hotel
In Book-Shop Lecture

Dr. Carl Holliday, professor of English, will speak on "The Evolution of American Humor" at the Cliff Hotel in San Francisco, November 10, as one of the series of literary talks presented each week by the library and book shop of the hotel.

A request has been made to Dr. Holliday that he send his various volumes of verse and manuscripts of his poems for exhibit at the Panorama of Poetry now being held in the forum of Rockefeller Center, New York City.

The Panorama of Poetry is to feature books of poetry by American authors, and is sponsored by such writers as Arlington Robinson, Stephen Benet, Mark Van Doren, and Robert Frost. The exhibit will continue through November.

President MacQuarrie Denounces Distribution Of Radical Literature

NIGHT GAMES TO BE VOTED ON BY STATE STUDENTS

If football games at San Jose State can be held at night as proposed, attendance will probably be increased tremendously, judging by success of other colleges who have undertaken the change as an experiment, sponsors of the plan declare.

Football gate receipts at George Washington college, Washington D. C., increased 200 per cent in the 1932 season as the result of the inauguration of night football games, it is claimed.

The possibility of after-game dances has been suggested, with the idea of attracting crowds to the night grid contests.

The coupon printed in today's paper is for those who have formerly been unable to attend the games on Saturday afternoons, but who could go on Friday evenings. These students are asked to fill out the coupon in order that the approximate number who would be benefited may be determined.

The support of the business men of San Jose has been assured, this group being especially enthusiastic that a change in the time of the games be made, because at present their business hours and counter-attractions prevent them from supporting the local team.

Sue Hedger Picture Is Accepted by Palace Of Honor Of Exhibition

Mrs. Suzanne Hedger, (Suzanne Engelske) former San Jose State college student, has just been accorded the honor of having one of her pictures, "Room With Red Curtains", accepted for the exhibition now being held in the San Francisco Palace of the Legion of Honor.

This exhibition is being held to give young Californians a chance to show their work publicly and to become better known. Although a resident of Europe for many years, Mrs. Hedger is a native of San Francisco, where her grandfather, Dr. George Chismore, founded the Bohemian Club.

Mrs. Hedger's picture is a painting of a Paris studio, and was done by her while attending the Academie Colorassi in Paris. The well known artist, Paul Burlin, was Mrs. Hedger's teacher.

BETA PLEDGE

Asks Student Body To Combat Attacks of Radical Parties

By Dr. T. W. MacQUARRIE
Note: This column is personal between the president and the college. Outsiders are requested not to make use of the material.

Now they have come out into the open. The hand bills distributed Tuesday urging students to disobey a direct order from the State Board of Education were signed by a national, if not an international, Communist organization.

This is the first time I've noticed anything of the kind, although I have suspected it once or twice. Now we can act. No more fooling. No more molly-coddling. That outfit is making a direct attack upon the freedom we have always enjoyed at San Jose State. Nothing is good to those warped minds. They are not permitted to think. They are not open to reason. They present no grievances. They operate secretly. Their ideas are given to them complete by powers beyond the campus. I miss my guess if an alien is not leading the move here.

VICIOUS ATTACK

When it comes to a direct and vicious attack like that, the time for discussion is over. I hope every true citizen on this campus, every one who loves the United States of America as well as his college, will assist in the eradication of this festering sore. Will all loyal groups, clubs, classes, and societies act immediately. Make plans to get the necessary information. If you know members of the group, please feel quite free to take them to the edge of the campus and drop them off. I am very sure if they continue their efforts beyond the campus bounds the San Jose community is well prepared and willing to take care of them.

Don't make any mistake, young people. This is a direct attack, vicious and senseless, upon our free government. It jeopardizes seriously the welfare of all of us. Certainly nobody wants a gang like that to run our nation, and

Spartan Daily Editor
In Health Cottage

Dan Cavanagh, Spartan Daily Editor, was last night confined to the Health Cottage for an indeterminate period as the result of overwork. His condition is further complicated by a cold.

As editor of the Spartan Daily, Cavanagh has been carrying the major share of the burden of getting the paper out every morning in addition to his scholastic activities.

TO FRESNO GAME

Spartan football fans are rallying to the support of the team for Saturday's deciding game.

Interest is running so high that a special train to Fresno, which will leave the Southern Pacific depot at 7:00 o'clock Saturday morning, and will return at about 11:00 that night.

The train will be rerouted through the valley on the return trip, allowing students living in Modesto, Madera, and other valley towns to spend the week-end at home. A five day stop-over has been allowed by the railroad company.

The company has also stated that the price of tickets will be lowered from $3.10 to $3.00 if 200 students buy tickets by 5:00 o'clock today.

Tickets may be obtained in the quad booth and in the controller's office.

Observation, dining, and passenger cars will make up the special train. A dancing car will be added if desired. Arriving at Fresno the student rooters will be transported to the stadium by bus, and will be accommodated by the school cafeteria for meals.

Presentation of student body cards will insure free admission to the game.

Two football teams of 90 members, and 45 members of the band will also go on the chartered special.

Dolores Freitas Heads
Journalistic Frat; Plan
Full Year of Activities

Planning to sponsor one of the most ambitious programs ever undertaken by a college journalistic society, Sigma Kappa Delta, honorary journalism fraternity on the campus, will meet at four o'clock this afternoon in the Spartan Daily office to complete their schedule for the quarter.

Officers elected to head Sigma Kappa Delta this fall are Dolores Freitas, president; Frank Hamilton, vice-president; Thelma Vickers, secretary; and Helen Tracy, treasurer. Mr. Dwight Bentel, director of publications, will serve as adviser for the fraternity.

Members who are expected to attend the meeting tonight are Alice Parrish, Dan Cavanagh, Clarence Naas, Gil Bishop, Richard Hughes, and Jim Fitzgerald. Dr. Carl Holliday is the honorary adviser for the society, which was organized last winter quarter.

DR. POYTRESS TO LECTURE

Dr. William Poytress, of the social science department, will give a University of California extension course, starting this Thursday afternoon, consisting of 15 lectures on the Roosevelt policy and the new deal in general.

PLAYERS OPEN SEASON WITH PRODUCTION OF
HAMLET THIS EVENING

Jim Clancy To Have Leading Role; To Be Repeated
Friday And Saturday

Premier performance of the long-awaited "Hamlet", impressive Shakespearean drama, will be presented by the San Jose Players in the State college Little Theater at 8 o'clock this evening.

The "Players", student dramatic group, has a cast of veteran players awaiting the initial curtain call tonight.

Jim Clancy, veteran of many performances, will play the title role, "Hamlet". Those who saw him in one of last year's dramatic hits, "Hadda Gabler", will remember his stellar performances. This is his last year in school, and "Hamlet" is the biggest assignment in his dramatic career.

Virginia Maddox, also a seasoned trouper of many plays, will interpret the role of the Queen. Jean McCrae is entrusted to play the part of the delicate Ophelia.

Horatio, Hamlet's only friend, is played by Gary Simpson. Ray Ruf, as the King, has a part with sweeping, powerful characterization, and completes the list of the major roles.

The merits of the entire cast may be judged by the number of well-known players who are handling minor roles in the production including Joy Arps, Frank Hamilton, Dorothy Vierra, Jim Fitzgerald, Ronald Linn, Marion Melby, and Elizabeth Allampress.

Mr. Hugh W. Gillis, director of the Players, has been spending the last few days putting on the smoothing touches to both the gorgeous setting of the play and the performances of the players.

A few seats are still available for tonight's performance, with tickets selling at 35 cents for students and 50 cents for outsiders. Tonight is the first of the three night run of the play, with performances Friday and Saturday nights.

Nursing Candidates
Organize; Officers
Will Head Group

The 51 students who have registered for pre-nursing courses have been organized into a club separate from the Pre-Medical group.

The officers of the club are: president, Marjory McKinney; vice-president, Marie Weppener; secretary, Jean Sweet; and faculty adviser, Miss Alice B. Hansen of the science department.

As the first of several entertaining programs planned for the club meetings, Dr. Jay C. Elder gave an interesting summary of the 43 accredited hospitals in California.

The group has been organized as a means of acquainting its members with different phases of medical work.

SHALL WE MAKE A CHANGE?

In this issue of the Spartan Daily is a composite coupon to determine the attitude of the associated students regarding two major issues which must be decided while interest is high enough to command the cooperation of everyone.

Do you favor a change of the name "Spartan" to something more appropriate? Do you think night football games would be more feasible than day games?

Your opinion on both these matters is desired—in fact, your opinion is absolutely necessary before any definite steps can be taken. This is not a move directed by two or three people who like to stir up noise; it is the result of much dissatisfaction, discussion, and demand for change. The stand of the Spartan Daily is merely the reflection of the general attitude of the public concerning both the questions under consideration.

It is a definite fact that football in San Jose has not been paying for itself; undoubtedly because Saturday afternoons offer so many counter-attractions to the local citizens. A survey conducted by the Spartan Daily among the business men of the city and among students of the college revealed that night games were unanimously preferred, and consequently guarantees a great increase in attendance. The same survey advocates a change from the name "Spartan" to one more indicative of the college and its background.

It is impossible, of course, to contact everyone personally before these issues are settled. Therefore we ask you to fill out the coupon and take it to the publications office.

The Spartan Daily is sponsoring a contest for the best name to replace "Spartan", the prize being announced elsewhere in this paper. November 9 has been set as the closing date for this contest. We want one big drive! Whether you favor the change or not, let's make it unanimous.

D. F.

COMPOSITE COUPON

Do you think a more appropriate name than "Spartans" could be found to designate State College students?

What name do you suggest as being preferable?

Would you favor State College home football games at night to eliminate competition with other events on Saturday afternoons?

JIM FITZGERALD INVITED TO PLAY WITH CELEBRITIES

Jim Fitzgerald, president of San Jose Players, has been invited by Dale Winters (Mrs. Henry Duffy), stage and screen star, to play opposite her in the role of Michael in a special performance of Milne's celebrated play "Michael and Mary". The play is to be featured as a benefit for the student loan funds of Santa Clara County, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Norris and the Federated Women's Club at the San Jose Women's Club November 9.

Miss Winters is to return from Hollywood Saturday, and the first rehearsal for "Michael and Mary" is called for that afternoon.

Kathleen Norris and Ruth Comfort Mitchel will also be featured on the program. Music for the evening will be under the direction of Adolph Otterstein, head of the music department.

To enable State College students to meet the celebrities who are being featured on the program, the Federated Women's Clubs are offering a special rate of 25 cents to all persons presenting a State student body card at the door on the night of the performance.

Book Fair is sponsored by the College Y.W.C.A. It is interested in presenting to both men and women students, reviews of new books in various fields.

Communist Agitators Branded As 'Warped Minds' By President

now's the time to put a stop to the movement here.

COLLEGE TOLERANT

I can't imagine a more tolerant institution than this college. Honest, open discussion has been encouraged in every way. There has never been any criticism of an opinion based on facts. It makes no difference how fair an institution may be, it cannot possibly satisfy the Communist agitators. I honestly believe their activities can end in nothing but bloodshed.

If you know who distributed those hand bills or had anything to do with them, and you are not in a student group which can handle the matter, I wish you would give me the information. The situation is so serious that I am willing to go to any limits to resist such an attack. It is not a question now of students turning in information about their fellows, it's a question whether a gang of irresponsibles directed from outside can interfere with a legitimate activity of the state of California.

SOCCER TEAM BEATS MENLO; 5-0

THE SPORT SPOTLIGHT

By Dick Edmonds

The game at Fresno this week has all the earmarks of becoming the big game of the year for San Jose State. If the Spartans can down the Bulldogs we may look to see them at the top of the Far Western Conference heap at the end of the season. Beating Fresno was hardly thought possible until Sparta's men turned on Nevada in Reno. Now, if the squad can overcome the Bulldog eleven it will have received the incentive to march through the remainder of the schedule to the conference championship.

Spartan football fans will get their touch of intersectional football next week when Willamette, from Salem, Oregon, will journey here to meet the San Jose eleven in what should be one of the most colorful games of the year. The "Bearcats" are known to have one of their strongest teams in years and one which is capable of giving any squad on the coast a good tussle.

Having seen several of Willamette's men play last year, I wish to state that the Spartans will have to go some to keep the Bearcats from returning home with the victory. One of the leaders of the team, Johnny Oravec, diminutive halfback, has become one of the most feared ball carriers in the northwest because of his speed and deceptive stride in running.

Stanford, in six games, has only had 7 points scored against it. Not only that, the Indians have held these opponents to a total of 12 first downs.

This speaks well for that great line composed of Moscrip, Callaway, Reynolds, Muller, Topping, Adams, and Rouble. Any group of men who can hold San Jose State, Santa Clara, Oregon State, Northwestern, San Francisco and Southern California to the sum of 12 first downs must set some kind of a record.

The Spartans scored one first down, Santa Clara three, O.S.C. two, Northwestern none, San Francisco six, and Southern California one.

Stanford is the only California team in the running for the Pacific Coast Conference title and, for the first time in many years, two Northwest teams are yet undefeated and in a position to take the championship away from the Golden State.

Washington and Washington State are the rivals which will have to be subdued before the Indians will have full claim to the title. Washington, coached by Jimmy Phelan, will play the rampaging Indians in a game which should be the greatest on the coast this season. Washington has a passing attack second to none and so far Stanford's pass defense has not shown too well.

Bay section fans will have an opportunity to judge the ability of the Washington State Cougars Friday when they meet the St. Mary's Gaels in an important clash in Kezar Stadium. Watch out for these two teams because there is a good chance that there will be a Northwest team in the Rose Bowl game this New Year's as the representative of the West.

SPARTAN SOCCER TEAM LOOKS GOOD IN VICTORY OVER JUNIOR COLLEGE

The Spartan soccer team, under the coaching of Charlie Walker, yesterday took a trip to Menlo J.C. and handed the Jaysee team a 5-0 trouncing.

It was the first win for the local boys this year, and bids fair to start them off on a winning streak.

The game started slow, and the first quarter was well along when Rigglesworth slipped the ball into the Menlo netting for the initial score of the game. The quarter ended with the Spartans leading 1 to 0 and gaining momentum all the time.

In the second frame, it was Main who came through with a beautiful shot to give the San Jose team another digit on the score book.

The San Jose offensive reached its height, and the Staters were constantly threatening the Menlo goal, but were only able to cash in once.

After the half, and before the game was really well under way, a Menlo player, either through confusion, or sympathy, kicked the ball into his own goal, thus giving the Spartans a point. Making the score 3-0. This break seemed to sap the fight from the Jaysee team, and although they held for the remainder of the quarter, the game lacked the punch which marked the first two quarters. In the fourth period, Rigglesworth added another goal, and not to be outdone, Olaveri chalked up number 5 for the San Jose boys.

On defense, Le Clergue at Right Fullback was outstanding. He was literally a rock when it came to stopping Menlo plays. On the forward wall Pitcher and Troutner played stellar games, and showed a great improvement over their previous work.

This Saturday the Spartan soccer team will meet San Mateo J.C. The local team expects to win, and if their game comes along as it has been, they will probably have little trouble with the Jaysee outfit.

BOOT AND SPUR

All girls who plan to participate in Boot and Spur Club ride this Sunday afternoon at Monterey, must sign up by 3 o'clock today, Geraldine Williamson, riding club representative, said, in order that horses may be ordered.

Intramural Activities

Schedule for today:

12:10, Sophs vs. Seniors.
12:35, Frosh vs. Juniors.

If the weather permits, the final games of the touch football schedule will be played today. Seniors and Sophs are slated to play the 12:10 game. The Seniors will probably fail to appear for today's game. However, the sophs should have enough men to claim the forfeit.

The feature game will bring together the undefeated Juniors and the second place Frosh. The Juniors, with one victory over the Frosh to their credit, will be favorites. To win the Frosh must stop the Junior air circus. With Carl Biddle doing the tossing to Jennings, Lavo, and Lanphear, the Juniors have turned back all opposition thus far. Regardless of the outcome, this game promises to be one of the best played during the schedule and will serve as a fitting climax to the intramural touch football schedule.

W. A. A.

Advance activity plans of W.A.A. got well under way at the W.A.A. Executive board meeting last Tuesday afternoon.

June Rayner was appointed general chairman for the Annual Christmas Banquet which is to take place this year at the Hotel De Anza, December 3. Other arrangements for the banquet include ticket sales, to be in charge of Doris Shields, and publicity, to be handled by Marion Bolden.

Vera Moss was named general chairman for the W.A.A. Tea to be given December 5, following the annual Orchestral presentation of "The Juggler of Notre Dame".

RESULTS OF SPELLING QUIZ UNSATISFACTORY DECLARES DR. BARRY

Very Few Miss Less Than Ten Words In Mosher Spelling test

The results of the Mosher spelling test were far from satisfactory, according to Dr. Raymond W. Barry of the English department, who revealed yesterday that the average grade was only 61.

In a test of 50 words, only five out of the 827 students who took it missed less than six.

Dr. Barry declared that the test showed that students' spelling ability was limited solely to the words that were in common use among them. He also stated that very few of the students would show any marked improvement in spelling during the remainder of their composition courses.

POOR RESULTS

Dr. Barry stated that the results of the spelling test in the "bone-head" English A classes distinctly upholds the poor results of the English A examinations, and that spelling was one of the causes for so many failures.

Dr. Barry expressed the opinion that when some students receive a grade of more than 40 errors and only a small percentage miss less than 10 words, primary and secondary English education was failed in some way.

MISSPELLED WORDS

Dr. Barry stated that County Superintendent of Schools Joseph C. Hancock had asked him to speak on the subject of "English A" failures during the 1934 teacher's institute, and that he would advance his theories for the poor results of the English A and spelling tests.

Miss Elsie Swanson, English department secretary, stated that at least 35 per cent of the students who took the test failed. She continued by saying that the most frequently misspelled words in the test were: Polymyellitis, vilify, kimonos, sacrilegious, dietitian, rarefy and secede.

Mrs. Charlotte W. Rideout said that many of the errors could be traced to mispronunciation.

Y. W. To Observe Recognition Day

New Y.W.C.A. members will be initiated at the annual recognition day services next Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Schofield Hall, it was announced at the weekly cabinet meeting Monday night in room 14.

The hostess committee, under the direction of the newly-appointed chairman, Barbara Hutchings, will receive the members and accompany them to the scene of the ceremony.

Bertha Kalm is general chairman of the affair and with the assistance of two subchairmen, Ilse Hauk, refreshments, and Marion Ishida, decorations, has made plans for the evening.

Hot spiced cider and cookies will be served as the traditional refreshments for the affair, while lighted candles will be included in the decorations to create the desired atmosphere.

A "Day of Silence" on November 18 at the home of Betty Foster in Berryessa was planned, and it was suggested that three services of worship and readings at mealtime be included in the schedule for the day.

PERIODICALS ARE LISTED IN KARDEX FILE IN LIBRARY

Because she has been plagued by countless student inquiries concerning magazines in the San Jose State college library, Mrs. Frances H. Purser, librarian in charge of periodicals, today issued a formal statement explaining the proper way to secure information on periodicals to be found in the library.

"Look on the Kardex," Mrs. Purser advises.

The Kardex is the vertical panel of wood on the Readers' Guide table, joining which, are five steel pages containing cards. These cards are an index to all the magazines the library has.

KADEX SYSTEM

"Consulting the Kardex will teach one much concerning the bound and current magazines which the library has.

"There is the American Journal of Education. Back in 1856 it made its appearance in the field of education. We have volumes from 1856 to 1881. Read them if you have time some day—see how they compare with our current education magazines.

"Probably our oldest magazine is volume one of Littell's Living Age. It bears the date 1844—and one can't but become sentimental on handling it. Why, that was before John Marshall discovered gold in California. This magazine is still being published under the title 'Living Age', and our files are practically intact from the day it began. Harpers from 1850, and Atlantic Monthly from 1857 vie with Littell's Living Age, however.

OLD MAGAZINES

If you are interested in what the world had to say about California in the 80's, read "The Californian". We have volumes covering the years 1880 to 1883.

"Those of you with a flair for outdoor life will surely be fascinated by the volumes of Outing. We have seventy-four volumes from 1882 to 1919. Volume VI contains a delightful account of a trip across America on a Bicycle in 1885, with illustrations which make you long for the good old days.

NEW TITLES

"But we aren't necessarily all in the past," Mrs. Purser went on to say. "There are newer titles too—System and Business Management, Popular Science, Popular Mechanics, Radio, Automotive Review, Business Week, and the ultra-modern Fortune are but a few of the current titles listed.

All bound volumes are arranged around the room against the wall according to title. Current numbers are in the alcove with the periodical indexes. Those between the current and bound volume state may be secured at the Reference Desk. All are listed on the Kardex."

CAROL ROHRER LEADS ONE TEACHER SCHOOL

She is assisting Miss Rose Voss at the Huyck school on the Mount Hamilton road, a small frame building, built in 1887.

Because of the isolated position of the school, many of the pupils seldom see a town, and some have never been in San Jose, according to Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh, supervisor of student teaching in the State education department.

It rained yesterday—bringing the season total to .73 of an inch.

FALSE HAIR FOR CHARACTERS IN PLAY, "HAMLET"

San Jose State college Players go "Hollywood".

Those who aren't wearing wigs are enviously commenting on those who do.

But it's all in the interests of art. Hamlet goes on the boards tonight for a three night run; and in the absence of the hirsute adornments called for by the script, the wigs come into play.

After going beautifully blond for "Hedda Gabler", Virginia Maddox was forced to sheer her tresses in order to don the special dark wig necessary for her part as the Queen.

Jean McCrae, decided brunette, has two blond wigs for the portrayal of Ophelia.

And the ladies are not the only ones to wear false hair.

Ray Ruf has a lovely false wig waved in the smartest kingly fashion, and a classy red beard for his part as the "King".

The Dutch cut type of wig is favored by Frank Hamilton and Bob Wright. This type of wig gives the boys a charmingly quaint appearance, and should do much to add to their picturesqueness.

No wig for Jim Clancy! It's the other extreme for him, since the barber sheared the Clancy tresses short one sleepy afternoon.

The Japanese delegation to the Washington Naval conference will inform American representatives that there can be no surrender on their demand for naval tonnage equality, it was reported yesterday.

CAFETERIA CLASS HAS HALLOWE'EN LUNCHEON MENU

Mrs. Sarah M. Dowdle's class in cafeteria management offered a special Hallowe'en menu yesterday noon in the school cafe, serving food suggestive of the holiday.

Bats and owls, toothy-faced pumpkins, and candles set in small pumpkins as individual holders, furnished the Hallowe'en decorations.

Yesterday's luncheon was the first special one this year. Others will be given later for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Betty Philpott, Virginia Phillips, Catherine Walker, and Viola Ramelli are the homemaking majors who planned the menu.

On occasion, students are assistant managers of the cafeteria, and their duties include planning menus, buying, food cost accounting, decoration and supervising preparation and serving.

Witches' brew, jesters bullets with goblin bread, and phantom loaf were served, yesterday, followed by spooks, stilts, jack's lantern, and a choice of three equally eerie salads, mystery, hallowe'en, and 1000 ghosts. For dessert devils, devil's cake, demon's delight, and black magic cobbler were served.

Chairman Is Elected For Frosh Y.W. Group At Meeting Monday

Betty Brainard was elected chairman of the Y.W.C.A. Freshman Luncheon club at their weekly meeting Monday noon in room one of the homemaking building.

As freshman chairman Miss Brainard will preside at all meetings, cooperate with Bertha Fauquet, Y.W.C.A. chairman of the group, in planning programs, and give the freshman viewpoint in deciding policies.

Explaining the membership requirements, the advantages, and the activities of the organizations which they represent, three women leaders on the campus spoke to the group: Kathleen McCarthy, president of A.W.S.; Jean Hawley, former secretary of Black Masque; and Frances Gould, president of the college Y. W. C. A.

Very Few Miss Less Than Ten Words In Mosher Spelling test

The results of the Mosher spelling test were far from satisfactory, according to Dr. Raymond W. Barry of the English department, who revealed yesterday that the average grade was only 61.

In a test of 50 words, only five out of the 827 students who took it missed less than six.

Dr. Barry declared that the test showed that students' spelling ability was limited solely to the words that were in common use among them. He also stated that very few of the students would show any marked improvement in spelling during the remainder of their composition courses.

POOR RESULTS

Dr. Barry stated that the results of the spelling test in the "bone-head" English A classes distinctly upholds the poor results of the English A examinations, and that spelling was one of the causes for so many failures.

Dr. Barry expressed the opinion that when some students receive a grade of more than 40 errors and only a small percentage miss less than 10 words, primary and secondary English education was failed in some way.

MISSPELLED WORDS

Dr. Barry stated that County Superintendent of Schools Joseph C. Hancock had asked him to speak on the subject of "English A" failures during the 1934 teacher's institute, and that he would advance his theories for the poor results of the English A and spelling tests.

Miss Elsie Swanson, English department secretary, stated that at least 35 per cent of the students who took the test failed. She continued by saying that the most frequently misspelled words in the test were: Polimyelitis, vilify, kimono, sacrilegious, dietitian, rarefy and secede.

Mrs. Charlotte W. Rideout said that many of the errors could be traced to mispronunciation.

Y. W. To Observe Recognition Day

New Y.W.C.A. members will be initiated at the annual recognition day services next Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m. in Schofield Hall, it was announced at the weekly cabinet meeting Monday night in room 14.

The hostess committee, under the direction of the newly-appointed chairman, Barbara Hutchings, will receive the members and accompany them to the scene of the ceremony.

Bertha Kalm is general chairman of the affair and with the assistance of two subchairmen, Ilse Hauk, refreshments, and Marion Ishida, decorations, has made plans for the evening.

Hot spiced cider and cookies will be served as the traditional refreshments for the affair, while lighted candles will be included in the decorations to create the desired atmosphere.

A "Day of Silence" on November 18 at the home of Betty Foster in Berryessa was planned, and it was suggested that three services of worship and readings at mealtime be included in the schedule for the day.
